Winner—B. f. by Sain—Highland (trained by R. T. McMillan).
Went to post at 2:07. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same.
Satchel was favored by the going and, always a contender, raced Glendon to defeat, came fast in the stretch and won easily. Easy Trade was off well in motion, ran well and outgamed Christine A. in a short stretch drive. The latter was kicked a couple of times when at the post, began slowly and closed a big gap and then tired. Glendon showed speed, but tired as if short. Choice also tired.
Corrected weights—Satchel, 97.

Went to post at 2:34. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Lida Leib was outrun for the first half and came wide at the turn into the homestretch, but finished fast and was going away at the end. Katie Powers came fast in the stretch, caught Allista tiring and got up in the last stride for second place. Allista showed the most early speed, but Phillips never made a move on her and put up one of his "sit still" rides when challenged. Domino Whist and Atlas showed early speed.
Scratched—(42693) Silk Maid, 109.
Lida Leib, show, out. Katie Powers, show, 9 to 20. Allista, show, out.

Coruscate began slowly, but saved ground at the turn into the homestretch, came with a rush and finished fast and gamely. Autumn Leaves raced Bardolph to subjection in the first half and outgamed Orfeo in the final drive. The latter was beaten through a bad ride. Austin rode him all over the track and turned his head loose when it came to a drive. Bardolph tired in the stretch drive.

Fonsoluca made up a lot of ground while rounding the far turn, wore Tam o'Shanter down in the stretch run and got up in the last stride. Tam o'Shanter displayed much early speed, but tired. Judge Himes was never dangerous.

Preakness was lucky throughout, ran past Jim Ferrin while rounding the turn and drew away in the stretch run, but was hustled along all of the last furlong. Hobson's Choice made up ground and finished fast. Trovator was ridden hard all through the last quarter and outgamed Langford James at the end. The latter ran in improved form. Jim Ferrin ran well to the stretch.

Winner—Ch. f. by Hastings—Glory (trained by E. Hanna).
Went to post at 2:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
Gloriosa was at home on the wet track and showed plenty of speed, but was not quite on edge and tired when a furlong from home, compelling Higgins to shake her up to draw away at the end. Widow's Mite came fast in the stretch under punishment, but tired when a sixteenth from home. Wager ran a fair race and will be worth remembering in other company, was doing his best at the end to stall off Lord Advocate. The latter was outrun early but finished fast. Minotaur was a sharp contender to the stretch bend, when he went lame and was pulled up at the end, Burns dismounting and leading him back to the scales.

Burdette showed the most speed from start to finish, but was made too much use of when a quarter from home and was tiring fast at the end. Ancestor ran a good race, came wide into the stretch and was catching the winner at every stride. M. Theo made a determined effort in the stretch, but tired in the last sixteenth. Tepee was shut off by Ancestor on the turn out of the backstretch and was in a pocket well into the stretch. Queen Belle, plainly short, showed speed, but was used up in racing with the winner.

 Winner—Br. h, by Pirate of Penzance—Right Wild (trained by F. Weir).
 Went to post at 2:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
 Wild Pirate ran as if he outclassed his company at the weights and won as his rider pleased. was in the middle of the course all the way and never under pressure. Trepan, a useful sort of performer, was a contender to the final furlong, where he made a good effort under a drive, but could not get up. Satire showed far more speed than usual of late, but tired in the stretch when hard pressed. McWilliams was in deep going next to the rail all the way and was eased up in the last fifty yards. Stonewall's race was far from his best form.

Scratched—42257 Flara, 108; 42723 Hoodwink, 94.

 Winner—B. f, by Hamburg—Goutte d'Or (trained by J. E. Madden).
 Went to post at 3:25. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second driving.
 Golden drop was the best at the weights and ran a good race, forced the pace throughout and had enough left in the last hundred yards to stall off Reveille. The latter closed up gamely in the stretch under a hard drive, but could not wear the winner down. Sweet Tone was outrun to the stretch, where she made up ground and was a contender in the final drive, but tired right at the end. Mohican could not last after showing plenty of speed and was used up in chasing the winner. Miss Shylock finished well. Toi San broke slowly and was never dangerous. Pistol was eased up when beaten.

Scratched—42652 Pompano, 113; 42688 Julia M., 109.
 Corrected weights—Mohican, 106; Susie Christian, 99.

 Winner—B. c, by Flatlands—Lucky Clover (trained by V. Hollar).
 Went to post at 3:50. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same.
 Cloverland was vigorously ridden all the way and that won for her. The first three were all out and driving all through the last eighth and Fletcher outdied the others in the final drive. Burning Glass showed quick improvement and would have won in two more strides. Russell Garth was made too much use of and tired when the others caught him. Heir Apparent ran a fair race. Erda finished fast on the outside. Singing Girl was never a contender.

Scratched—38532 Orly, 107; 42228 Silver Foam, 107.
 Overweights—Burning Glass, 2 pounds; Heir Apparent, 2.

 Winner—Ch. f, by Crighton—Nellie Bell (trained by W. L. Oliver).
 Went to post at 4:15. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
 Gaviota was at home in the sloppy going, ran well throughout and had plenty to spare at the end. Hoodwink was all out and driving to stall off Past at the finish, but might have been closer up with a stronger rider. Past came fast at the finish and outgamed Flara in the last hundred yards. The race was a good one for her.
 Scratched—(42710) Ascension, 113.

 Winner—B. f, by Fitz James—Quadruplex (trained by C. P. Cusick).
 Went to post at 2:11. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
 Stirling Towers is greatly improved, won all the way and, finishing well in hand, was much the best. Marelio put up a fast and game race, finishing fast and gamely. Cherries unexpectedly made good in the closing drive, just getting up for third place. Rinaldo II. followed the winner's fast pace closely, tiring in the stretch run. Chileno, poorly handled, clung on tenaciously to a rear position throughout, running far below his best form. Achilles and Red Tip both got away badly, but were gaining at the end. Parsifal is strictly a mudlark.

Overweights—Marelio, 1 pound; Rinaldo II., 1; Del Vista, 1.

 Winner—B. f, by Balgowan—Gratitude, by Hyder Ali (trained by G. Covington).
 Went to post at 2:35. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving.
 Eugenie B. ran in a forward position to the stretch, where she moved up and held her field safe in the last furlong. Targette finished fast and, improving her position in the last half, got up in the final stride for second place. Red Cross Nurse beat the barrier and made most of her advantage, but fell away in the stretch run. Anirad, in close quarters, finished fast when with clear sailing in the last furlong. Durbar, a slow beginner, held a rear position to the stretch turn, where she moved up fast, but went very wide, losing all chances. Miss Ringlets was going fast at the finish and can do better. Libbie Candid was short, but went a good three furlongs. Gottlieben ran away five furlongs at nearly top speed before the start.

Scratched—38328 Floriana Belle, 100.
 Overweights—Eugenie B., 3 pounds; Libbie Candid, 1; Gottlieben, 4.

 Winner—Ch. c, by Nomad—Charm, by Cheviot (trained by W. B. Jennings).
 Went to post at 3:03. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily.
 Arabo appeared big and high and the race should fit him. He far outclassed his field and indulged The Don with the lead to the far turn, where he drew to the front, cantering home. Heather Honey came with a rush on the inside in the stretch run, but the winner always held him safe. Lacy Crawford trailed his field for six furlongs and put up a good stretch run. The Don, evidently a non-stayer, led on sufferance for nearly six furlongs and quit badly. Dotterel favors soft going and has grown and may develop into an improved filly.

Overweights—Lacy Crawford, 1 pound.
 Arabo, show, out. Heather Honey, show, 1 to 2. Lacy Crawford, show, 1 to 2. The Don, show, 2 to 5.

 Went to post at 3:28. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
 Albula ran in close attendance on the pacemaker, came through into a long winning lead at the stretch bend, was never bothered to hold his advantage to the end and won eased up. Kenilworth went badly in the betting, apparently no move was made with him at any stage and moreover he was taken hopelessly wide on all turns and finished an easy second. St. Winifride was far from keyed up, but sustained her superior speed well for five furlongs and will be heard from. Muresca held on in fourth place throughout and never got into serious contention. Scotsman looked like a cart horse, but his race was unexpectedly good.

Albula, show, out. Kenilworth, show, out. St. Winifride, show, 3 to 2.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"Racing associations will some day adopt the Bertillon system to prevent the 'ringing' of racehorses," said a well-known San Francisco turfman recently. "It could easily be done," he continued, "and if the measurements were taken and registered with the jockey club every year horsemen would know more about the conformation of a horse and ten times as much of the development of a young animal each year as formerly." There's no doubt the Bertillon plan could be applied in such cases, and horses that at first glance look very much alike, as The Fiddler and McNamara, would beyond a doubt vary greatly in their measurements, and the once-a-year measuring scheme would make the ringing of a racehorse an impossibility. The peroxide of hydrogen artist of the Chilson stripe would be put out of his nefarious business at one swoop, and the measurements could be made very simple—say the length of the head and from the mouth to the foretop; width from the throat to the eye, length of the cannon bones, and from hip to hock, the girth measurements, height from the ground to the highest point of the withers, width across the loins, across the hocks, and length of the "second thigh," besides noting any disfigurements or peculiarities of the horse under inspection.—San Francisco Bulletin.

While in New York last week Secretary Sheridan Clark said: "Former visitors to New Orleans will be surprised when they come down this winter. The track itself has been practically rebuilt, and about $30,000 has been expended on the course alone. All the paths that developed in the long wet spell last winter have been dug up, and the patching and altering has amounted to almost the laying of a new course from start to finish. A different quality of loam has been used for the top dressing, and the present cushion is one that will dry out quickly and at the same time have the track firm and safe at all times. These needed alterations on the track surface were completed several weeks ago, and although there has been a particularly long dry spell in New Orleans, the new work has been thoroughly drenched and settled until now the cushion is a particularly disirous one. There has been a general work of repair about the stables, grandstand and other buildings about the property, and so far as the course itself is concerned we are ready to open the gates tomorrow. As a matter of fact, there are horses enough on the grounds now to give a very good meeting, and for weeks past the regulars have been drifting down our way."

Blues, a good horse in his day but inconsistent for two seasons past, has finally come far down in the world. At the auction sale of the Pleasance Stable last Saturday Fred Burlew bought Blues for $1,700, and the old horse which has had such a varied career will next year be started in cheap selling races, and will no longer be looked upon as a stake horse. In the racing season of 1901 Blues was well thought of, and much talked about as a candidate for the Suburban Handicap. Again in 1902 he was one of the favorites for the big Sheephead Bay stake, but in both these big events, as in many other races, he proved a disappointment to his owner.

The Caulfield Cup, one of the principal races of the Melbourne, Australia, racing season, was run for on October 17 and won by Sir Rupert Clarke's three-year-old filly, Sweet Nell. The cup was worth $15,000, and the time for the mile and a half 2:35. Sweet Nell carried ninety-seven pounds and also was engaged in the $25,000 Melbourne Cup at two miles with 108 pounds up. The result of the latter event has not yet arrived.

Archie Zimmer, who developed jockey Fuller, has taken another promising boy in hand. He has signed a contract on little Phil McGovern, brother to Terry McGovern, the pugilist. McGovern will ride for Zimmer and big Tim Sullivan, the Tammany Hall leader. Zimmer will take a string of racers to New Orleans for Sullivan this winter, and McGovern will go to the Crescent City to ride them. McGovern's contract with George Smith, "Pittsburg Phil," expired last August, and he has been riding free lance since that time. It is certain that McGovern will be given every opportunity to show his ability, as Mr. Sullivan is one of Terry McGovern's warmest friends. Sam Harris, the manager of Terry and Hughey McGovern, is also interested in Phil, and wants to see him become a great rider.

Seventy-four years ago Henry Clay began the breeding of racehorses at his famous estate, Ashland. For three-quarters of a century uninterruptedly thoroughbred horses tracing to the stock owned by the great Commoner have roamed the blue grass meadows of this historic spot. From sire to son the Ashland Stud descended, and from John M. Clay it went to his widow, but now it is booked to pass into turf history within another fortnight. For fourteen years Mrs. John M. Clay has held Ashland Stud together, but age is burdening the Kentucky authoress-horse breeder and the descendants of Magnolia and Margaret Wood, two of America's most famous broodmares, will soon be scattered by the auctioneer's hammer and become a memory only to lovers of the high-mettled racehorse. There is no instance on record of the keeping of a trust more faithfully than in the case of Mrs. Clay. It was a wish of John M. Clay when he died that Ashland Stud be preserved. Though then well along in years Mrs. Clay took up the task and for over a decade she has managed the business so successfully that she has added $50,000 to the estate left her by Henry Clay's youngest son. Today no business man's paper in Lexington is better than Mrs. Clay's and her indorsement is A1 in any bank.

Frank O'Neill will ride the horses of John A. Drake and John E. Madden during the Bennings meeting, and after that he will leave at once for his home in St. Louis and will attend a business college in that city during the winter months.

Jockey "Jack" Martin, several pounds heavier than when he used to ride Advance Guard and Zoroaster for Aleck Shields, is at Oakland to ride for Walter Jennings during the local season. Jack came out of two trying surgical operations last summer with operations last summer with flying colors, and is all right again.

Lady Wadsworth, in the string of Garnett Ferguson at San Francisco, bowed a tendon, and will be retired. While she has never done anything sensational in turf circles, she is royally bred, and should prove a good broodmare.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Mr. Howland, president of the Washington Jockey Club, believes that the present meeting will be the best in the history of the club. He says that the interest taken in the meeting is surprising. He looks for a large attendance from New York. That he will not be disappointed in this is assured by the request for accommodations from there. Men who have never before been to Bennings except, perhaps, for a day, have bought season tickets and that is the best sign.

C. R. Ellison has experienced his first bit of hard luck preparatory to the 1904 season of racing in the death of his most promising yearling, a bay colt by Top Gallant—Catharine of Navarre, for which he paid $5,000. The youngster was ill at Lexington and died shortly after being unloaded from the cars on his arrival at Memphis.

Carps Diem, Chicago. Daily Racing Form only gives show odds on the first three horses and on such unplaced ones as are at 4 to 1 or less. In the case quoted Parisienne was 3 to 5 to show.

J. R. & F. P. Keene have ordered a number of their older horses, now in England, shipped to this country, but assert they have no intention of giving up racing across the water.

Tuttle, Chicago. Wagers on Runnels separately were draws. Elsie L. place bets won but at less than the quoted odds.

Wm. R., Chicago. Hayward Hunter was 1 to 3 to show, November 14.

T. H., Chicago. No separate price was quoted.
